

Dr. Anca Bordianu is a Medical Doctor at the "Bagdasar-Arseni" Emergency Hospital, Bucharest, Romania, specialized in Plastic Surgery, Aesthetics and Reconstructive Microsurgery. She is also a Lecturer in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at the "Carol Davila" University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Bucharest. Throughout her career, she has trained with world-renowned experts, gaining extensive experience in head and neck reconstruction, hand surgery, lower extremity surgery, burns, non-invasive aesthetic procedures, aesthetic surgery, and the surgical treatment of lymphedema. She is a member of several prestigious societies including ACPR, ASPS, EBA, WSRM, ASRM, and founder and president of the Romanian Society for the Study and Treatment of Lymphedema (RSSTL). Dr. Bordianu has been invited as a speaker to numerous national and international congresses, and she is the pioneer of microsurgical treatment for lymphedema in Romania.